

Intro

One day, I was thinking to myself, I could use a hobby. What to do. I had other hobbies, writing music, novels, and poems. I also did a podcast called Ferrit Walk. I would write three paragraphs about some characters named Bofo and Ferrit and record them to mp3 and made audiobook with it. You can still find the CD audiobooks, t-shirts and downloads. Boy, that was fun. I put them all up for free download on a few sites.

I remember the first computer I had that would make CD's. I had been writing songs for years and made a recording in a studio my fathers friend had. He put it on cassette for me and I had the cassette for years before I could put it on CD. Then I put it on mp3 year after that. Years after that, I was able to put them on free sites. When I talked to my old friends, I was able to share it with them.

Time marched on and I gave up on music. I did write a few novels and did get one published on demand. I wrote it under the pen name Marc Stone. It was called "Kiss My Fate". I put the other eight books aside since I wasn't rich enough to pay for publishing of the whole series. I payed for the first book myself. So here I am in search of a new or old hobby. I'm a big fan of free downloads.

Candles

A spark in the dark when the lights are out.
Wax and string made tall and scented.
Pass the flame this way.
Take a moment to relax your eyes.
Find your way to the place near by.
Glad darkness didn't stay.

A mirror? Now there are two.
You can even see yourself.
You look younger in the glowing light.
Shadows dance as flame flicker.
Soon time to put the flame out.
Drift off into the night.

Hip Hop Hurray

It's a long drive to the middle of Texas.
Hands on the wheel looking out the glass.
Rain and win made me loose time.
I parked for a couple hours under an underpass.

Traffic was bad and bumper to bumper.
What else could I say. It was a total waste of my day.
I came to a rest under a billboard.
It read Hip Hop Hurray.

The Fry Cook and Destiny

There was a time when I was a cook at a fast food restaurant.
I made burgers and fries but I didn't realize there was something else that I want.

The very next year I found a career.
I drove big trucks and it was my luck.
I delivered to the same place that I worked.
Amazing what I would do for a buck.

It was time to eat so I went in and ordered.
The cashiers were friendly and my order came.
I thought to myself it might, not be long
When the cook finds a career just the same.

The next fry cook might find a career
And drive a semi and go there to deliver.
Then as he was hungry and put in his order,
Would he meet the next delivery driver.

And so the wheel of destiny has spoken.
The card of Fate has been drawn.
When you get older and look back on your life,
You might see young people looking ahead.

Art Gallery

Through the door I looked at the paintings.
When I walked in, my imagination came to me inspired.
There were people and places and shapes seen through eyes.
The artist soul on canvas and seems never tired.

I was amazed at the shapes and people.
They were frozen in time for us to see.
And one painting seemed haunted.
Were the eyes following me?

I went home and had a dream.
Life was full of drama and strife.
I dreamed of people frozen in time.
I joined them in a painting of my life.

Fate and Destiny

What if Fate and Destiny met once in a lifetime to pick the people we meet.
Would a meeting of the minds be so much chosen for us.
Would they know already about our trials and loves?
What of the wrongs people do to each other unjust.

What if we fall short, would Destiny send help?
It's not fair for Fate to decide what's just.
With resolve we have a heavy hat to wear.
Time to be a better person and don't let it get to us.

Tell Fate that you write your own story.
Show him your inner resolve.
Let Destiny know you will be there.
There's s just a few more problems to solve.

New Page

What could I have said before.
Looking to the past I see,
shadows of the yesterday.
How can I be free.

Tomorrow is a blank slate.
Words I have yet to write.
A grain of salt and a sense of humor.
I just need to look to the light.

I do my chores and pick up the mess.
It never ends over and over.
Today if I lived alone, would I know?
I need to make the new page today, this I did discover

Bark Bark

We have dogs. They get loud. When deliveries come to the door
They bark bark.

When a car or motorcycle passes by when they are outside,
They bark bark.

I pull on their chains and smack them with my hand but still
They bark bark.

In the house when people come by even if they know them
They bark bark.

A shock collar? No! Hit them with stick? No!

Puppy hugs when they are good?

That's a lot of puppy hugs.

And shrugs when they

Bark Bark

The Zoo

Two cats and two dogs and they seem to get into everything.
The trash gets knocked over and they steal bread off the counters.
They always make a break for the door.
Don't they know they are our prisoners.

They jump on me and bite my fingers.
They play with anything that wiggles.
Too big for a lapdog but he doesn't care.
Anything for a bit of the giggles.

Down the hallway they are in the way.
Always into something.
Always picking up after them.
They leave their toys like children.

Shadow is the quiet one. Only comes out now and then.
Oreo is the playful one. Hunting bugs and climbing.
Butch is stubborn. Too big for my lap.
Bandit likes cats but they are just playing.

I like to take naps on my recliner.
Here comes Butch the big lap dog too.
Then Bandit and Oreo came to keep my legs warm.
All I need now is shadow. Soon it's feeding time at the zoo.

Good Morning

I wake up and and take the dogs out.
Then I make coffee and warm up the computer.
I catch up with my friends on the social site.
Looking for some chat with my coffee, sure.

Suddenly, someone makes me smile.
Then I start to wake up and take the dogs out again.
Maybe sit down to write some poems.
Maybe take time to make a new friend.

Spooky Spooky

I sat down at my desk to write, perhaps a mystery.
I was alone and the wind was high. I heard a sound.
Could it be a window that I forgot to close?
Was there something loose outside that I should fasten down.

I heard the sound again so I got up from my seat.
I went down the hall and the power went out.
My imagination ran away and I could see shadows.
I got a flashlight from a shelf and I tried to shake my doubt.

Just as I feared, I was losing my mind. I heard the sound again.
I went back to my desk and tried to ease my mind.
The lights came back on but I felt I wasn't alone.
There was something spooky here of a different kind.

I was interrupted by the phone. The mystery would wait.
When the power goes out again, I'll be ready.
Next time when the lights go out, I'll make a little noise.
Next time it will be me going "Spooky Spooky!"

Psychology And Sikology

There once was a man named Pavlov.
He had some dogs that he taught to drool.
He rang a bell at feeding time and he had a moisture measuring tool.

Days passed and soon they learned.
They would drool at the sound of the bell.
He called it conditioned response.
A lesson to learn just as well.

There was a man with a fish tank.
He put in a glass divider.
Later when he took out the glass,
fish acted like it didn't get any wider.

Around the house I learned some things.
Turn off lights when I leave a room.
I keep ugly thoughts to myself.
I don't act like bad news is certain doom.

Life gives us challenges and bad news at times.
We can train ourselves not to let it get to us.
Why get angry when people are mean.
I try to take it in stride and avoid a fuss.

Shadows

Glowing heat in the corner of the room.
Turn off the lights and put some music on.
The fireplace and some candles glow making shadows on the wall and they dance to the song.

Tea is warm and it think if it was this easy wouldn't we have done this before.
Slow the world down so I can take a evening off from the pressure of things that need me more.

Shadows keep me company and I think a mystery and who done it.
Was it the shadow on the left?
The shadow on the right saw the puzzle fit.

Nine Lives

So you wanna be a rock star? Learn to play some rock and roll.
You finally figure out its country that they dance to.
This band is full out druggies and crooks and your a good guy.
You still write songs and sing in the basement but its only just for you.

So you join the military. You learn teamwork and discipline.
You learn a trade and they send you off to duty and you make a friend.
Your unit has a reputation as the best in the Air Force.
You polish up your medals but you leave and try again.

Time to find a job. Job hunting but not the right experience.
What to do? Burgers and fries? Making burritos? Pet store?
A department store men's wear? Furniture sales?
You go back to school, you need a career.

They are hiring truck drivers and you get to travel.
You get to drive with somebody when your in training.
It's a different town every night it seems.
Just take your time when it's raining.

Years go by and you look back you see.
You are a self made man that made your own way.
You did those things others wish they tried.
You still have music you made yesterday.

What's Up Pup

At night I put them in a cage because I know they don't behave.
In the morning before I do anything,
I take them outside and they act so brave.

They bark at cars and people next door.
I try to hush them but its no use.
So much noise it makes me shudder.
I have never stood for for puppy abuse.

Three years and I still remember he used to fit in the palm of my hand.
The place is small and some times I wish that I lived in a house that had more land.

When I sit and type, they are at my feet.
When I watch TV they nap next to me.
When they get hungry, they kick their dish.
When they want outside, I see.

When I am busy, there they are.
They jump on my lap and lick my face.
I'm busy and they bark and lick me.
So I have puppy time to slow down from my race.

They are quiet now so I enjoy the peace.
The puppies laying at my feet.
It's nice right now but soon I know,
they will tell me that it's time to eat.

Heat

It's time for summer and I can feel it's hot and I wonder if I'm ready.
Got a towel if I sweat.
I wouldn't faint if I stay steady.

I need ideas so I thought a bit.
I came up with a little plan.
I would sit inside and close the doors.
I would just sit inside by a fan.

A New Hat

I can't seem to make up my mind today.
What were those things I want to say?
If I could hold a thought in my hands, would it wither and blow away?

Off in a trance I daydream of things.
Are you wondering what I could be laughing at?
Am I talking to myself again?
Well life is funny and I need a new hat.

Life Goes On

When you told me good bye, I wondered how my parents did it.
They were together through it all and we parted company.
All the plans we had were gone and the family we never made,
when I think of my life and how it could have been, sometimes haunts me.

Years went by and our son never calls. I was never there.
I was off to see the world and I had one more adventure.
Now I have a friend that just broke up and I feel her pain.
She could use a friend and I am there for her.

Starting from nothing again with nothing but experience.
I told my self it will be different next time.
I wont give in so much during the next set up.
Wanting more is not a crime.

Ah, the drama we put up with just to keep the peace.
There's more to life then drama but you can't see.
I think I should just quit, would I be better off alone?
But instead I try again and try no to let them get to me.

I gave up so much when I tried to love again.
A prisoner with a different kind of lonely song.
Still I wake up every day and the world didn't end.
Some how I know life goes on.

Two lives

Someone to talk to after all this time. Some one to listen.
Years ago when I was growing up we grew close on a trip or two.
We were friends for life and we never knew the tricks time would play.
We drifted apart with a book full of memories. What we had to do.

I had a career and a family and lost touch with my friends I grew up with.
Then one day I found a site online and found my friends from school.
I started drinking coffee in the morning and I would chat with them.
Funny how the years would melt and I felt like an old fool.

I would spend an hour a day talking about what used to be.
Then I would get on with my day and do some chores.
It was almost like living two different lives at times.
Who I was and who I am might never meet and I didn't know before.

Now I am offline and I talk to the wife.
We made a list, we need to get some cat food.
Pay attention to the wife. What a different life.
But I chat with old friends when I'm in the mood.

Kiss My Fate

Trick or treat, the mask comes off. What's it like to know what's inside your soul.
The fun's begun you backwards man and I'm the student say it's done.
You saw it coming eyes of fire. So pure of heart you mesmerize.
Let me be your soul's desire you backward walking heartless man.

I'm a child, I'm a man. In the end we will see.
You're so lonely it's no wonder.
What's behind is all you see.
I want it. Kiss my fate. I want it. Kiss my fate.

Turn around and watch my fate. Tell me how you know so much.
Turn around you backwards man. I want to see your face.
You put a spin on everything. You line it up before it falls.
You rescue cats pajamas. You got it back so may I call.

I'm a child, I'm a man. In the end we will see.
You're so lonely it's no wonder.
What's behind is all you see.
I want it. Kiss my fate. I want it. Kiss my fate.

On the sidewalk down the streets. Steady eyes and restless feet.
The part of you that never shows is the part I want to meet.
I'm okay, I'm not as blind. No snakes to chase, no stoney heart.
I'm a man without a home looking for a place to start.

In the end you spin around. Everything was up is down.
I'd be blind if no one dared. I'd be dead if no one cared.
I want it. Kiss my fate. I want it. Kiss my fate.

Walking backward takes its toll. Walking back who looks inside.
The mystics all call me fool and no one came with me for a ride.
What I did is done now sing. Tell me of the journey's end.
Nothing better than a tale shared with some forgotten friend.

In the end you spin around. Everything was up is down.
I'd be blind if no one dared. I'd be dead if no one cared.
I want it. Kiss my fate. I want it. Kiss my fate.

Robot Brain

Web page hot hits I'm online. Surfing pages doing fine.
Getting info in my headset. Click on info in my neuronet.
Robot in my shadow zone. Robot my electric clone.
Got a cyber soul mate now. Information over load.
Take it to the edge of sanity. Take it to the rage of sanity.
Go insane robot brain. Go insane robot brain.

Mega metal tubes and wires. Circuit boards and micro chips.
Parts of anything I find. Going super info blind.
Robot gears and metal arms. Get a robot brain alarm.
Inside out the circuitry. Looking at the parts of me.
Take it to the edge of sanity. Take it to the rage of sanity.
Go insane robot brain. Go insane robot brain.

Melting down the metal head. Melting down the micro chip.
In my head I am insane. Got to find my robot brain.
Take it to the edge of sanity. Take it to the rage of sanity.
Go insane robot brain. Go insane robot brain.

Shadow Zone

I took a pill lat night. Today I feel so lazy.
The doctor said it's no wonder that I'm crazy.

Up all night, sleep all day.
Can't make this feeling go away.
Turn my brain inside out.
I just want to shout.

What's wrong with me. Why am I so dead inside.
What's wrong with me. Why am I so blue.
What's wrong with me. Why am I so crazy.
What's wrong with me. Now what can I do?

The shadow zone in my head again.
Talk to myself and my invisible friend.
The doctor said I shouldn't be alone.
My family's worried when I call them on the phone.

Up all night, sleep all day.
Can't make this feeling go away.
Turn my brain inside out.
I just want to shout.

What's wrong with me. Why am I so dead inside.
What's wrong with me. Why am I so blue.
What's wrong with me. Why am I so crazy.
What's wrong with me. Now what can I do?

Kitty Moon talks to me in my sleep.
Don't fantasize about the Astro Creep.
My head caves in and I'm insane.
Feeling like a robot brain.

Up all night, sleep all day.
Can't make this feeling go away.
Turn my brain inside out.
I just want to shout.

What's wrong with me. Why am I so dead inside.
What's wrong with me. Why am I so blue.
What's wrong with me. Why am I so crazy.
What's wrong with me. Now what can I do?

Dead Rain

In the fear I follow. In the pain I feel.
In the mask I feel no grip of death.
The hunger smokes the rain.
In the chair I smolder. In the face I see.
In the hollow of the shallow birth.
The wise man follows same.

Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain in blue skies.
Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain, Dead rain,

In the heart of stone. In the year of now.
Sine the light of true fire in my starving soul.
In the pain I still feel. In the heart of crow.
The raven knows the heat of sin that only lovers know.

Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain in blue skies.
Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain, Dead rain,

A part of me is happy. A part of me insane.
A part of my religion's hard to get me in my brain.
A piece of me is loyal. A part of me is true.
Part of my heart is stone. Standing in the rain.

Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain in blue skies.
Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain, Dead rain,

When you fantasize of me you rob me of my soul.
You take apart my nature. You fake the love you know.

Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain in blue skies.
Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain, Dead rain,

Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain in blue skies.
Dead rain coming down.
Dead rain, Dead rain,

Snake Bite

You came on strong. You leave me weak.
You can't ask me to turn the other cheek.
It's a game you play. You don't play fair.
Always leave me hanging in mid air.

I turn my back you bite spine.
I know its just a matter of time.
Your teeth are sharp. Your poison stings.
With madness only loving you can bring.

Snake bite. Snake bite. Snake bite. Snake bite.
Bite back.

I hate you babe but you're in my head.
Look in my face our love is dead.
You suck my life you bleed me dry.
Then you have the nerve to ask me why.

You're sliding around the back streets of town.
Your feet never seem to touch the ground.
You're sliding around the back streets of town.
And you're the one on my back.

Snake bite. Snake bite. Snake bite. Snake bite.
Bite back.

You're biting my spine. You're breaking my back.
Why would I ever want to take you back.
You're biting my spine. You're breaking my back.
Why would I ever want to take you back.

Snake bite. Snake bite. Snake bite. Snake bite.
Bite back.

I Fought The Darkness

I was so in love with you but the darkness of my soul still came through.
I tried to keep it inside but I couldn't hide the parts of me that died.
I Fought The Darkness. I fought the ghost of death.
I fought the darkness and saved you with my last breath.

You thought you knew me well and I'm sorry that I put you through so much hell.
I'm much older now and the reason for my darkness and my soul for sale.
I Fought The Darkness. I fought the ghost of death.
I fought the darkness and saved you with my last breath.

Turn your back on me. Walk in the light.
Don't let me drag you under in the night.
Turn your back on me while you still can.
Don't let me drag you down with me tonight.

I tried to keep you from the pain. The light I saw almost saved my soul.
I know it's me who's to blame. And now I know I have to let you go.

I Fought The Darkness. I fought the ghost of death.
I fought the darkness and saved you with my last breath.

Turn your back on me. Walk in the light.
Don't let me drag you under in the night.
Turn your back on me while you still can.
Don't let me drag you down with me tonight.

I was so in love with you but the darkness of my soul still came through.
I tried to keep it inside but I couldn't hide the parts of me that died.
I Fought The Darkness. I fought the ghost of death.
I fought the darkness and saved you with my last breath.

Drink It In

It's a psycho super market. Prozac goes on sale.
Looking for the honesty. Feeling kind of pail.
Drink it in. yeah. Drink it in. yeah.
Drink it in. yeah. Drink it in. yeah.

A new disease is shaking branches of your family tree.
Looking for the doctors note. Feeling like therapy.
Drink it in. yeah. Drink it in. yeah.
Drink it in. yeah. Drink it in. yeah.

A new disease is coming. Open up your mind.
Saving silver dollars. Now I'm going blind.
Drink it in. yeah. Drink it in. yeah.
Drink it in. yeah. Drink it in. yeah.

It's a psycho super market. Prozac goes on sale.
Looking for my reason. Trying not to fail.
It's a psycho super market. Prozac goes on sale.
Looking for the honesty. Feeling kind of pail.
Drink it in. yeah. Drink it in. yeah.
Drink it in. yeah. Drink it in. yeah.

I'm Hot

I bout my soul back. Went from black to white.
I fought the demons. Went to the guiding light.
It's not easy to turn away from darkness when it feels like it's everywhere.
The light I kept inside me was burning like a candle, burning like a flame.
I'm hot. So hot.
I'm hot. Too hot.

Demons all around me trying to change my mind.
Try so surround me. Working over time.
Find a way to get away from shadows. Not the way you play this game.
Can't keep hiding in the darkness. Burning like a candle, burning like a flame.
I'm hot. So hot.
I'm hot. Too hot.

Turn away from darkness. Try to break the spell.
Don't want to be the damned coming back from hell.
It's not easy to turn away from darkness when it feels like it's everywhere.
The light I kept inside me was burning like a candle, burning like a flame.
I'm hot. So hot.
I'm hot. Too hot.

Angels In The Snow

She was some kind of angel. She walked in the snow hoping to meet her soul mate.
Dancing like shadows across the ground.
Something would then make her wait.

Eyes in a picture would make you feel
the eyes were somehow watching.
Eyes in a portrait were so unreal.
The eyes were somehow watching.

Restless people never finding sleep wandering out to the courtyard.
Some kind of angel in search for a mate dancing to music from her heart.

Eyes in a picture would make you feel
the eyes were somehow watching.
Eyes in a portrait were so unreal.
The eyes were somehow watching.

Destiny

I barely even knew her. I just found out her name.
Never felt like this before and she said she felt the same.
Pack my bags for New England. So different from the west.
I stepped on to the Greyhound hoping for the best.

Take a long ride to your destiny. What have you got to lose?
If it's where you want to be, pick any fate you choose.

On the bus I met some strangers. Some people with bad luck.
Down and out and they had to go some place else to make a buck.
They tell me they lost everything. I count my lucky stars.
I'm off to meet my future in the greyhound counting cars.

Take a long ride to your destiny. What have you got to lose?
If it's where you want to be, pick any fate you choose.

That woman over there just got married to a man.
But he is in the army serving in Japan.
That guy's out of prison finally going home.
When I tell them my story, they say I shouldn't go.

Take a long ride to your destiny. What have you got to lose?
If it's where you want to be, pick any fate you choose.

Looking over my shoulder I can feel my angel.
When I get to the border only time will tell.

Stepping off the bus, New England felt so cold.
Then I met my stranger and she gave me a hand to hold.
There was magic in her eyes. It was love at first sight.
Everything I ever wanted and it never felt so right.

Take a long ride to your destiny. What have you got to lose?
If it's where you want to be, pick any fate you choose.

Don't Miss It

Sometimes I miss the open spaces. Here there's too many hiding places.
I miss the wolf howling at night. I miss the sand owls in the moon light.

I miss the desert where I used to live. I even miss the birds but it's all relative.
The muddy water of the Rio Grande, scorpions and spiders down in the sand.

I guess I don't miss it all that much. I guess I don't miss it all that much.

The cactus sometimes can be a pain. The heat only drives me insane.
It's true they can farm and harvest the land. It's true it's not just a box of sand.

I guess I don't miss it all that much. I guess I don't miss it all that much.
I guess I don't miss it all that much. I guess I don't miss it all that much.

The sky is open and the stars at night can make you feel so small under the moonlight.
If I had one wish I could give to you I'd bring some home to share the view.

I guess I don't miss it all that much. I guess I don't miss it all that much.
I guess I don't miss it all that much. I guess I don't miss it all that much.

Even A Fool

No one has to tell me why the stars are bright.
No one has to tell me why the place looks good in moon light.
Even a fool could feel the magic in the air.

I'm just a traveler that finally found a home.
It's a long place from where I came, from where I used to roam.
Even a fool can feel the magic in the air.
Even a fool can feel the magic everywhere.
Even a fool like me can learn to care.

Time goes on a mystery to solve.
How far should I go? Should I get involved.
Even a fool would know when he has it good.

Time is passing so put the past behind.
Let it all go let the spring unwind.
Even a fool would know when he has it good.
Even a fool can feel the magic everywhere.
Even a fool like me can learn to care.

I said I was sorry and moved on with my life.
I loved a woman and she became my wife.
Even a fool would know there's magic in the air.

I traveled to the west to the place I started from.
Nothing has changed but the don't remember much.
Even a fool can feel the magic in the air.
Even a fool can feel the magic everywhere.
Even a fool like me can learn to care.

Even a fool can feel the magic everywhere.
Even a fool like me can learn to care.

Girl It's Nice

I haven't been this happy in a long time.
Trying hard just to ease my mind.
Work all week but when I'm through girl it's nice to come home to you.

I haven't felt so happy for forever.
Just love it when we spend time together.
Watching movies when there's nothing else to do.
Girl it's nice to come home to you.

Coming home to you girl is my favorite thing.
Want to tell the world. Wanna dance and sing.
Coming home to you girl takes my cares away.
I wouldn't have it any other way.

I never found a girl like you before.
Now I have you I couldn't ask for more.
It doesn't matter what we do.
Girl it's nice to come home to you.

I don't care what people say. I don't care what people say.
I don't care what people say. Coming home to you takes me breath away.

It's Alright

Slow down take a good look around.
Powder white snow all over the ground.
Christmas music in the air.
Children playing without a care.
The same old thing is on TV
but I'm happy that you're home for the holidays with me.

This time last year I didn't know who you were.
Summer came and left in a sudden blur.
Autumn came and the leaves turned red.
Now the winter blues is in my head.
We didn't make snowmen, didn't drink nog.
Didn't even toss the fireplace a log.

But it's alright. I got you with me.
Can't think of any place I'd rather be.

Let's go shopping and get a tree.
Light some candles so we can see.
Trim the tree and light the lights.
Maybe go out for dinner tonight.
I'm a lucky guy they keep telling me.
Get some mistletoe and save some for me.

But it's alright. I got you with me.
Can't think of any place I'd rather be.

I knew you were the one for me the day we met.
There wasn't any one that would take the bet.
Let's get the little one a Barbie Corvette.
Walk out in the rain and try not to get wet.
Something special when you hold my hand.
I feel like I'm living in a winter wonderland.

But it's alright. I got you with me.
Can't think of any place I'd rather be.

There For Me

I never had it so good. Always felt like there was something missing.
Nothing felt like it should. I found the reason why.
Used to be all alone. I never went for one night stands.
Now I call you on the phone and I know you understand.

In my darkest hour. I know I'm not alone when I hold you.
You make me feel so good saying we want to last forever.
Can't wait to get home and feel your loving arms around me.
It's what I'm living for. I'm not the same way that you found me.

You're there for me. You're every thing I need.
You're there for me. I feels so complete.
You're there for me. It's not just a dream.
You're there for me. I feels so complete.

I never had it so good. Always felt like there was something missing.
Nothing felt like it should. I found the reason why.
Used to be all alone. I never went for one night stands.
Now I call you on the phone and I know you understand.

You're there for me. You're every thing I need.
You're there for me. I feels so complete.
You're there for me. It's not just a dream.
You're there for me. I feels so complete.

You're there for me. You're every thing I need.
You're there for me. I feels so complete.
You're there for me. It's not just a dream.
You're there for me. I feels so complete.

Badabeep

Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep

Send me a message. Send me a line.

Send me an email. Your on my mind.

Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep

Love it when you page me. What's on your mind.

Talk about the weather. Talk about the time.

Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep

Taking a bitty break. Talking to myself.

Might as well just have some fun. Take Bofo off the shelf.

Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep

Look up here do you see. Look up here it's only me.

Look up here come quietly. Now let's make some noise for free.

Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep Badabeep

Dance With Me

Feel like dancing to a different drum. Feel like finding a new song to hum.
It's a simple song so sing along. I don't care if it comes out wrong.
Magic in your eyes took me by surprise.
Now I realize that you are the best.

Sing a different melody. Feeling like you set me free.
Play it in a different key. Save a little love for me.
An open door makes me want more.
And when I swim to shore you find out what love is for.

Dance with me in the moonlight.
Make believe it was love at first sight,
Dance with me in the moonlight.
We'll make everything alright.

Sing a different melody. Feeling like you set me free.
Play it in a different key. Save a little love for me.
An open door makes me want more.
And when I swim to shore you find out what love is for.

Dance with me in the moonlight.
Make believe it was love at first sight,
Dance with me in the moonlight.
We'll make everything alright.

Good To Me

Can you walk away from the past. Happiness just don't seem to last.
Put on a smile and do it fast. Looking good and built to last.
Challenges are fine with me. Made my own destiny.
Looking out for what I see. Ain't no time but we are free.

You're good to me. Make me who I am.
You're good to me. Take me as I am.

Take life one day at a time. Realize that I was blind.
Looking deep into my mind. May trouble be so hard to find.
Going through the motions. Moment by moment on the ocean.
Where did you get the notion. Caught by your emotion.

You're good to me. Make me who I am.
You're good to me. Take me as I am.

Grace

You know I love you but some times I didn't listen.
You're such an inspiration. Didn't know what I was missing.
I didn't pass every test and when the darkness came
I felt like I was alone and I only have myself to blame.

Grace came to me. You take me as I am.
There was only one perfect man.
Grace came to me.
What's done is in the past. And now I understand.
Grace came to me. Grace came to me.

I've had time to write a book when shadows cling to my wall.
My farthest thought was about your grace but I still overcame it all.
And when I need to get some rest, the place you made for me is safe.
When I put darkness far behind, you know I'm not that brave.

Grace came to me. You take me as I am.
There was only one perfect man.
Grace came to me.
What's done is in the past. And now I understand.
Grace came to me. Grace came to me.

Now you're talking to me. What's between us is no longer in the way.
What you're saying to me is that I'm fine and you like me this way.
So I took up a pen and I wrote a new song.
I'm happy you're part of you're part of my life and you love me even when I'm wrong.

Grace came to me. You take me as I am.
There was only one perfect man.
Grace came to me.
What's done is in the past. And now I understand.
Grace came to me. Grace came to me.

How The Story Goes

Electric light and up on my road. You're trying to talk to me.
It's a sure fire and I'm a live wire and we got no place to go.

Heaven sent an angel and he's watching over me.
I tapped Cupid on the shoulder and said "Who do you know?"
He showed me a lovely lady and that's how the story goes.
How the story goes. How the story goes.

I'm in the hot seat doing fine about to lose my mind.
Dragging my heart around and I got to take my time.
Cupid tagged me with an arrow. Got to take it slow.
Now every thing is doing fine. It's easy on my mind.

Heaven sent an angel and he's watching over me.
I tapped Cupid on the shoulder and said "Who do you know?"
He showed me a lovely lady and that's how the story goes.
How the story goes. How the story goes.

Do you want to be retro active playing some kind of game.
Does Cupid know if it will hit. How good is his aim.
I haven't lived so long without a fantasy.
Girl unwind your on my mind. Trying to talk to me.

Heaven sent an angel and he's watching over me.
I tapped Cupid on the shoulder and said "Who do you know?"
He showed me a lovely lady and that's how the story goes.
How the story goes. How the story goes.

Miracle

Want to see some changes in your life.
You know the difference between black and white.
You got your head on straight.
And things are going great.
Your thinking you can take it on.
You're saying "Bring it on."
I'm a believer. Expect a miracle.
I'm a believer. It's a miracle.

Moses crossed the Red Sea, lead his people free.
I'm gonna do the same to the place I am.
Freedom is on the other side.
I'm leaving my place to hide.
Your thinking you can take it on.
You're saying "Bring it on."
I'm a believer. Expect a miracle.
I'm a believer. It's a miracle.

Looking for another friend to ease your mind.
You say it just depends in if he's kind.
You see your self in the mirror.
Your view is getting clearer.
Your thinking you can take it on.
You're saying "Bring it on."
I'm a believer. Expect a miracle.
I'm a believer. It's a miracle.

Mr. Fun

You don't believe a thing I say.
Don't know what it's like to see my way.
Don't know how you feel okay.
Don't believe a thing I say.

Look in a mirror you know it's true.
The wonderful things I see in you.
I feel good and you know it's true.
Don't you know I believe in you.

Fantasy and daydreams somehow come true.
All the things I said I meant right then.
Fantasy and night dreams you're the one I see.
Won't you be my fantasy.

I'll be true to you. I'll treat you good.
I'll give you the love that I should.
If you need me just hold my hand.
I'm here for you so understand.

Fantasy and daydreams somehow come true.
All the things I said I meant right then.
Fantasy and night dreams you're the one I see.
Won't you be my fantasy.

I may be crazy. Just be yourself.
You don't have to put Mr. Fun on a shelf.
Look to tomorrow it's a brand new day.
Things might just turn out that way.

Look in the mirror what do you you see.
Tell me what you see in me.
It just might be destiny.
You could be right here with me.

Fantasy and daydreams somehow come true.
All the things I said I meant right then.
Fantasy and night dreams you're the one I see.
Won't you be my fantasy.

Fantasy and daydreams somehow come true.
All the things I said I meant right then.
Fantasy and night dreams you're the one I see.
Won't you be my fantasy.

Hmmm

I wonder what they would say if they knew. I wonder what they would do.
There's something about me that needs to be free.
Haven't been home in months and now I finally see.
Grass needs cutting and other things are waiting for me.

I've seen cities and I've seen towns. I've been homeless and walked around.
Give some change to the man. I've been down and I understand.
What ever I do it seems is only enough in my dreams.
Had a hard time with loneliness. Why is my life such a mess.

I would live. I would sing.
Something inside of me wants to be free.
Wants to be free.

Good news doesn't make me smile. Bad news and I knew all the while.
When I get what I think I want. Getting by and survive somehow.
How can I be so lonely. Where do I go when I reach the end.
Something inside me still wants to be free.

I would live. I would sing.
Something inside of me wants to be free.
Wants to be free.
I would live. I would sing.
Something inside of me wants to be free.
Wants to be free.

Completely

You're the same girl I met. I'm the same guy that fell in love.
We sure don't have it easy but maybe love's enough.
I wouldn't have it any other way. I want you to know that I'm here to stay.
When we feel like we are in over our heads we can turn off the lights and just go to bed.

To think of all the time I waited before I fell in love with you.
All my crazy wishes and the ones you made come true.
I never felt alone again. I can feel you always near me.
Even in an empty room. I love you so completely.

Completely completely

Fresh

Looking over the hill it's not the same.
Standing in line trying to learn a new game.
A tendency to wear it thin.
I can feel the sand on my skin.

Starting out fresh. It's time to begin.

Over the mountains and across the sea.
People are there and waiting for me.
I can feel it in the air.
But somehow I don't care.

Something is coming and I don't know where.

Judge me not. I make mistakes.
Heaven only knows how my heart breaks.
I was a sad little boy. Then I got a new toy.
The little boy now felt joy.

Still So In Love

You had some time to think. What difference does it make.
She's the same girl you fell in love with. She hasn't changed at all.
Still so in love. Still so in love.

She looks the same way that she did. The same smile is in her eyes.
With the same arms around you. Still so in love.
Still so in love. Still so in love.

If I could give you everything you want. What else could I give I have everything I want.
I still want you to know I'm here for you.

We didn't take much time. Dancing to a different drum.
You're always on my mind. Always still in love.
Still so in love. Still so in love.

If I could give you everything you want. What else could I give I have everything I want.
I still want you to know I'm here for you.

You can see it in my eyes. You can hear it when I laugh.
I changed when I met you. I don't need anything.
Still so in love. Still so in love.

If I could give you everything you want. What else could I give I have everything I want.
I still want you to know I'm here for you.

Still so in love. Still so in love.
Still so in love. Still so in love.

One Night Stand

Did you hear what she called me? She thinks I'm contagious.
She wants to get to know me in the worst way.
I know she's been watching through the corner of her eye.
She likes the way I move. I see her lust for me.
I see it in her eyes she's looking for a one night stand.

Like a cat on the take. She's stalking her prey.
But she made one mistake. I'm looking the other way.
She wants some attention and she wants it from me.
She's craving my affection. It's not hard to see.
I see it in her eyes she's looking for a one night stand.

She's a thief and a liar trying to set me on fire.
Burning in the night for me to fill her desire.
I'm walking the line between lust and love.
And I really don't see the difference.

Did you hear what she called me? She said I'm a fool.
I won't play her game 'cause she makes all the rules.
I see it in her eyes she's looking for a one night stand.

She's a thief and a liar trying to set me on fire.
Burning in the night for me to fill her desire.
I'm walking the line between lust and love.
And I really don't see the difference.

Did you hear what she called me? She said I'm a fool.
I won't play her game 'cause she makes all the rules.
I see it in her eyes she's looking for a one night stand.

Punk Rock In The Saddle

He said he was a punk or was that his name.
His horses name was junk and he didn't have a brain.
You should have seen the faces as he rode into town.
The cowboy had a Mohawk, he was painted like a clown.

His last name was rock he said through metal teeth, an earring in his nose and a star on his cheek.
His black leather jacket said "Rocks here to stay".
His leather pants had a wiggle as he walked away.

And it was Punk Rock in the saddle. Punk Rock in the saddle.
Punk Rock in the saddle. Punk Rock in the saddle.
Yeah yeah.

He sung off his horse took a good look around.
He said "I'm the new sheriff gonna clean up this town.
I don't believe in violence. I never use a gun.
But some whips and chains but only in fun."

And it was Punk Rock in the saddle. Punk Rock in the saddle.
Punk Rock in the saddle. Punk Rock in the saddle.
Yeah yeah.

First met the outlaw he spit in punks eye.
The horse kicked his nose and made Punk cry.
Just when Punk thought he shed his last tear the outlaw thought he was cute and bought him a beer.

And it was Punk Rock in the saddle. Punk Rock in the saddle.
Punk Rock in the saddle. Punk Rock in the saddle.
Yeah yeah. Yeah yeah Yeah yeah Yeah yeah.

You Are The One

All of my life I needed someone there.
Someone to hold me. Someone to care.
Someone to love me with love to spare.
All of my life I've been dreaming of romance.
But when my time had come I never took the chance.
Until I found you. Then I knew at first glance.

You are the one who could satisfy my needs.
You are the one I've been waiting for.
You and only you could make me feel complete.
You're everything and everyone I've been longing for.

Once in my life I found the one for me.
Someone to answer my every single need.
Someone to love me just because I'm me.
Once in my life I found someone who cares.
Someone to hold me that would always be there.
Someone to love me with love to spare.

You are the one who could satisfy my needs.
You are the one I've been waiting for.
You and only you could make me feel complete.
You're everything and everyone I've been longing for.

You are the one who could satisfy my needs.
You are the one I've been waiting for.
You and only you could make me feel complete.
You're everything and everyone I've been longing for.

Super fox

She's got x ray vision and a heart of steel.
When things break down she says it's no big deal.
She's always there in the nick of time.
Let me tell you she looks so fine.
Oh yeah. She's a super fox.
Oh yeah. She's a super fox.

She can stop a train or she'll stop a clock.
Turns your head when she goes for a walk.
Her legs are silky long and wild.
Turn any grown man into a child.
Oh yeah. She's a super fox.
Oh yeah. She's a super fox.

On the tennis court she plays to win.
Waiting for the fun to begin.
She can't lose and it's no surprise.
She can bend steel bars with those eyes.

Melts the winter with the summer heat.
Wins at cards and she doesn't cheat.
Made of steel with a heart of stone.
I can't wait to get that girl alone.
Oh yeah. She's a super fox.
Oh yeah. She's a super fox.

Knows my name but acts so shy.
Said she'll wait but I know it's a lie.
She knows what you're hunting for but he doesn't play that game any more.

Melts the winter with the summer heat.
Wins at cards and she doesn't cheat.
Made of steel with a heart of stone.
I can't wait to get that girl alone.
Oh yeah. She's a super fox.
Oh yeah. She's a super fox.

Best Shot

You're looking at me with that gleam in your eye.
You can't expect me to apologize.
You said it's something I said but that's not true.
Because the finger always points back at you.
Somethings coming I don't know where.
I can feel it in the air.

You always make men want you. The people stop and stare.
And when I say I love you, you say you don't care.
The flesh is weak and you always break down.
But when you pick yourself back up you know I'm gonna be around.
Somethings coming I don't know where.
I can feel it in the air.

You took you're best shot. I'm gonna win it.
Take you're best shot. Now it's my turn.
Take you're bet shot. I'm gonna take you.
Take you're best shot best shot.

You brought the house down. They're begging for more.
You just gave them a taste of what's in store.
You brought the house down. They're begging for more.
You just gave them a taste of what's in store.

You took you're best shot. I'm gonna win it.
Take you're best shot. Now it's my turn.
Take you're bet shot. I'm gonna take you.
Take you're best shot best shot.

You took you're best shot. I'm gonna win it.
Take you're best shot. Now it's my turn.
Take you're bet shot. I'm gonna take you.
Take you're best shot best shot.

Woman With No Name

In her face there is trouble. In her eyes there is pain.
She lost all she had and now she has nothing to gain.
She lost her soul in a grave yard. She lost a life of romance.
Wandered into a singles bar to try and take another chance.

Just a woman with no name and a face you'll soon forget.
Other stories are just the same singing tunes of regret.

She might let you lead her to the dance floor. She'll let you buy her a drink.
she's so tired of fighting. doesn't care what her friends think.
She might even let you kiss her or let you take her to her car.
She knows she can't find prince charming in a singles bar.

Just a woman with no name and a face you'll soon forget.
Other stories are just the same singing tunes of regret.

Just a woman with no name and a face you'll soon forget.
Other stories are just the same singing tunes of regret.

Love Isn't Fair

I'm in control. I know what I want.
I get what I need when I look in your eyes.
I get feeling I can't explain.
You make me feel and it's my surprise.

At times I feel I could live and die in your arms.
In your eyes I see a love that's not there.
If I fall I know you won't catch me.
Sometimes I feel love isn't fair.
Love isn't fair.

You're in love and you won't break free.
It's a part of you you won't let go.
If you knew what it meant to me.
I got feelings for you that I can't show.

At times I feel I could live and die in your arms.
In your eyes I see a love that's not there.
If I fall I know you won't catch me.
Sometimes I feel love isn't fair.
Love isn't fair.

You drag me down spin me round.
I'm holding on to a dream.
You smiled at me but you don't love me.
And you never are who you seem.
You drag me down spin me round.
I'm holding on to a dream.
You smiled at me but you don't love me.
And you never are who you seem.

At times I feel I could live and die in your arms.
In your eyes I see a love that's not there.
If I fall I know you won't catch me.
Sometimes I feel love isn't fair.
Love isn't fair.

If you knew what it means to me.
Maybe one day you'll see the light.
If you give in you'll feel the guilt.
Only you know what's wrong and what's right.

At times I feel I could live and die in your arms.
In your eyes I see a love that's not there.
If I fall I know you won't catch me.
Sometimes I feel love isn't fair.
Love isn't fair.

Sissy Is A Dog

Jeffrey's cousin Bobby has a girlfriend named Alicia who's sister was a very lonely girl.
One night I got a phone call from from Alicia's good friend Carrie to ask me to give blind dating a whirl.
I said I understand and I don't have nothing planned and you never really know until you try.
I'll pick up Sissy in an hour. Give us time to take a shower then we'll kiss our lonely hearts good bye.

I knew this was a date from hell when I stepped up to ring the bell.
Then the door opened wide..
She had a great personality. Think that should have warned me that she looked like the bride of Frankenstein.
Sissy is a dog. Sissy is a dog.
They say that music calms the savage beast.
Sissy is a dog. Sissy is a dog.
I can't remember where I put her leash.

Took her to the drive in so no one would see her face.
Then I thought I was safe at last.
If someone I knew found out just imagine my disgrace.
When someone I knew drove past.

I knew this was a date from hell when I stepped up to ring the bell.
Then the door opened wide..
She had a great personality. Think that should have warned me that she looked like the bride of Frankenstein.
Sissy is a dog. Sissy is a dog.
They say that music calms the savage beast.
Sissy is a dog. Sissy is a dog.
I can't remember where I put her leash.

When the show was over I gladly took her home.
Then she invited me inside.
I had a lot to drink and she started looking better.
When I woke up in her bed I wished I died.

I knew this was a date from hell when I stepped up to ring the bell.
Then the door opened wide..
She had a great personality. Think that should have warned me that she looked like the bride of Frankenstein.
Sissy is a dog. Sissy is a dog.
They say that music calms the savage beast.
Sissy is a dog. Sissy is a dog.
I can't remember where I put her leash.

Dance All Night.

Some things coming over me. A feeling like a mellow blues.
I feel like stepping out. It's time to polish up my dancing shoes.
The night is calling me. I've got too much to do.
If I see the light that brings me closer to you.
We're gonna dance all night. We're gonna dance all night.
We're gonna dance all night. We're gonna dance all night.

Here's a club I never seen but I still don't see you.
I hate to leave so soon but I need to cure my mellow blues.
You let me down so now I walk the street.
Looking for a place to move my feet.
We're gonna dance all night. We're gonna dance all night.
We're gonna dance all night. We're gonna dance all night.

Thought I saw you on the corner looking for another man.
Until you walked up to me and smiled and took my hand.
My mellow blues is out of sight.
Let me tell you how we spent the night.
We're gonna dance all night. We're gonna dance all night.
We're gonna dance all night. We're gonna dance all night.

So if you get the mellow blues.
Take my advice. Here's what you should do.
Go out and dance all night. Go out and dance all night.
Go out and dance all night. Go out and dance all night.

We're gonna dance all night. We're gonna dance all night.
We're gonna dance all night. We're gonna dance all night.

Sweet Caress

You know it's coming. I've got nothing to prove and you're always on my mind.
I've got a feeling just by watching you move that it's just a matter of time.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.

I start to sweat in the heat of the night. You've got to hold me down.
I'm an animal fresh from the fight and I'm gonna hunt you down.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.

You got the motion turning me on and you draw blood when you bite.
You got the rhythm. I got the song and I'm playing with you tonight.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.

Tension's building and I'm inside. Taking me on that long slow ride.
Trying to get to the other side but I feel like I'm swimming against the tide.
Building like electricity inside me.

I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.
I feel your tenderness. I want your sweet caress all around.

Mellow

I got to 'cause I'm mellow.

People live on my street. I don't know where they go.
I say they move to fast. They say I move to slow.
I got to 'cause I'm mellow. I got to 'cause I'm mellow.

Billy's living too fast. One day he'll get burned.
I take it nice and easy. I used to but I learned.
I got to 'cause I'm mellow. I got to 'cause I'm mellow.

She's always in a hurry to make her dreams come true.
If I was standing in your shoes, here's just what I'd do.
I got to 'cause I'm mellow. I got to 'cause I'm mellow.

People try to run my life. That's not the way for me.
I got to do it my way because I set myself free.
I got to 'cause I'm mellow. I got to 'cause I'm mellow.

Wasting My Time

Maybe I'm wasting my time but it's too far ahead to tell.
There was something in your eyes that lied but I thought I knew you so well.
In the air of open conversation you cut me deep.
If I'm open to you I only hear half the secrets you keep.

Maybe she'll soon turn her back or I'll be the first to walk away.
If I'm open to you I only hear your side anyway.
Try to find a way to save our love but I feel I'm fighting alone.
Read about your side in the Sunday paper or else I would have never known.

It's a long walk alone. It's a far cry I hear.
I'm a long way from home so let's finish it right here.

Maybe I'm wasting my time but it's too far ahead to tell.
There was something in your eyes that lied but I thought I knew you so well.
Maybe I'm wasting my time.

My Turn To Live

Some things are better left unsaid. Some things are better left alone.
Try to walk away from the past. Where have all the heroes gone.
Jealous hearts confine you. You're a prisoner to love.
You hide where they can't find you and when push comes to shove.

It's my turn to live. To find someone special.
It's my turn to live. I know that I'm right.
It's my turn to live. I finally found her.
it's my turn to live. I know that I'm right.

I know love shouldn't hurt. It should be a place to heal.
Love shouldn't have to lie. Love should always be real.
Tired of playing head games you know you'll never win.
Shouldn't have to say you're sorry. Wanting more is not a sin.

It's my turn to live. To find someone special.
It's my turn to live. I know that I'm right.
It's my turn to live. I finally found her.
it's my turn to live. I know that I'm right.

Finally left her on her own. Finally found somebody nice.
Finally found what I been missing. Finally took my own advice.
Jealous hearts confine you. You're a prisoner to love.
You hide where they can't find you and when push comes to shove.

It's my turn to live. To find someone special.
It's my turn to live. I know that I'm right.
It's my turn to live. To find someone special.
It's my turn to live. I know that I'm right.

It's my turn to live. I finally found her.
it's my turn to live. I know that I'm right.
It's my turn to live. I finally found her.
it's my turn to live. I know that I'm right.

On In The Night

Took a long time to find what I was looking for.
I never saw it coming beyond the open door.
Just tell me you believe in me where ever I may roam.
Tell me that you still want me and I have a home.

Sometimes the third choice is the right one.
Sometimes I just can't get it right.
Sometimes I strike out like Casey.
Searching on in the night.
Searching on in the night.

Comfort is just a call away driving on in the night.
I see the strangest things sometimes in the shadows of the light.
When I hear your voice I fall in love with you again and again.
It's always so real to me. I don't have to pretend.

Sometimes the third choice is the right one.
Sometimes I just can't get it right.
Sometimes I strike out like Casey.
Searching on in the night.
Searching on in the night.

I feel a need to make love to you like you have never had before.
I want to make it real for you so you will never ask for more.
I might be building ice castles or monuments in the sand.
I might be taking things so hard but I hope you understand.

Sometimes the third choice is the right one.
Sometimes I just can't get it right.
Sometimes I strike out like Casey.
Searching on in the night.
Searching on in the night.

Sometimes the third choice is the right one.
Sometimes I just can't get it right.
Sometimes I strike out like Casey.
Searching on in the night.
Searching on in the night.

Only Heaven Knows

She had stardust in her eyes. She was larger than life.
She had the biggest dreams. Looking for a better life.
Some money in her pocket, a suitcase full of plans.
The world was gonna notice. Her friends would understand.

It's a long way from where she came a long long time ago.
It's a long walk to where she is and only heaven knows.
Only heaven knows. Only heaven knows.
Only heaven knows. Only heaven knows.

Somewhere she met an angel. She didn't know she was in need.
The angel gave her peace. She wanted more than just a lead.

It's a long way from where she came a long long time ago.
It's a long walk to where she is and only heaven knows.
Only heaven knows. Only heaven knows.
Only heaven knows. Only heaven knows.

When the world was turning. When people were in need.
She grew a pair of wings and did a desperate deed.
She gave of herself and helped then. Taught them to be kind.
Took her place in heaven and left the world behind.

It's a long way from where she came a long long time ago.
It's a long walk to where she is and only heaven knows.
Only heaven knows. Only heaven knows.
Only heaven knows. Only heaven knows.

Sands

I walked the purple canyon just to toss a stone.
Ringing a bell. I thought I was in hell. Then I realized I was alone.
The spirits of the natives floated above the ground.
Restless ancestors, my second quest was to put to rest the terrible sound.

So we search for the past sifting through the sands of our lives.
And we find pieces and fragments in our hands of our lives.

I was in an empty building where people come and pray.
I stood at the altar with nothing to offer. Wondering how long I should stay.
There's something about the people and the reverence they show.
Teaching the people, preaching the steeple of a message I still don't know.

So we search for the past sifting through the sands of our lives.
And we find pieces and fragments in our hands of our lives.

I made a choice long ago and I took a stand.
I missed my calling. Dreaming of falling. Marching to the holy land.
I carry such a burden. I've known a lot of pain.
Then one day my sadness finally found rest. I felt the healing standing in the rain.

So we search for the past sifting through the sands of our lives.
And we find pieces and fragments in our hands of our lives.
So we search for the past sifting through the sands of our lives.
And we find pieces and fragments in our hands of our lives.

Silent Companions

Do you dream of silent companions.
Dare not speak for they know only silence.
Wondering hills in search of a mad man.
He knows a secret that you understand.

So lost without you he took you away.
So lost without you with eyes full of fear.
So lost without you don't know what to say.
So lost and alone with hearts full of tears.

When you dream is darkness your friend.
When you are banished does it feel like the end.
Wondering thoughts of a scary bad man.
Escaping in dreams only to waken.

So lost without you he took you away.
So lost without you with eyes full of fear.
So lost without you don't know what to say.
So lost and alone with hearts full of tears.

Hearts of gold and hearts that are true.
Things you are told are things that you knew.
Looking for clues at the scene of a crime.
Pieces of puzzles but one at a time.

So lost without you he took you away.
So lost without you with eyes full of fear.
So lost without you don't know what to say.
So lost and alone with hearts full of tears.

Cursing a memory that you can't ignore.
Catching a criminal and locking the door.
Justice is coming and soon we can rest.
Justice is served to victims at best.

So lost without you he took you away.

Streets

She took a jet to California with a suitcase full of dreams.
Trying not to spill her coffee. She hopes one day to make the scene.
She used to live on fairy tales that never would come true.

Born and raised in Minnesota. Educated with the best.
Then she moved to California where she tried with all the rest.
She had stardust in her eyes. She had a different view.

The streets are full of life at night. The pirates dance and sing.
The night is full of her delight. With all the other things.

She met and married a producer. She's been working ever since.
Sometimes he doesn't know what to do with her. But as long as it pays the rent.
She used to live on fairy tales that never would come true.

The streets are full of life at night. The pirates dance and sing.
The night is full of her delight. With all the other things.

The streets are full of life at night. The pirates dance and sing.
The night is full of her delight. With all the other things.

Time After Time

They shine like brand new when you hold in your hand.
A lot like true love and they don't understand.
Look all around. It's like a shinny new dime.
Love comes back to you time after time.

They never let go once you set them free.
They'll never leave your side for eternity.
They never get older like a shiny new dime.
Love comes back to you time after time.

Getting old together they're still in love.
Put in open hand set free like a dove.
Never made prisoner by insecure minds.
Love comes back to you time after time.

They never let go once you set them free.
They'll never leave your side for eternity.
They never get older like a shiny new dime.
Love comes back to you time after time.

Staying young together looking for fun.
Walking in the moonlight or the setting sun.
They let go of love when they saw a sign.
Love comes back to you time after time.

They never let go once you set them free.
They'll never leave your side for eternity.
They never get older like a shiny new dime.
Love comes back to you time after time.

Living together time fades away.
Loving forever the both want to stay.
Look all around it's like a shinny new dime.
Love comes back to you time after time.

They never go away once you set them free.
They'll never leave your side for eternity.
They never get older like a shiny new dime.
Love comes back to you time after time.

Angels

Never looking back. Never holding back.
Petal to the metal keeping it together. Train coming down the track.
Shaking the blues. Made the front page news.
Do what ever you want to feel better. Do whatever you chose.

Sitting back. Laying back.
Watch it go by in slow motion. Take one down off the rack.

I won't know till I find it. Maybe it was always there.
Can it be an angel coming for me. Maybe she was already there.

This just in. Angels begin.
Take it for what you can get and count me in.

I won't know till I find it. Maybe it was always there.
Can it be an angel coming for me. Maybe she was already there.

I won't know till I find it. Maybe it was always there.
Can it be an angel coming for me. Maybe she was already there.

Doctor

Went to the doctor wasn't feeling good. Told me that I need to be understood.
He gave me a letter for thing I really should. I wasn't feeling bad. I just didn't feel good.

Woke up this morning all confused. Went to the kitchen and I wasn't amused.
Got the feeling like I was a bit bused, now I have the feeling like I'm being used.

Doctor, help me feel better. Doctor, what did you find.
Doctor, help me feel better. Doctor tells me it's all in my mind.

Some times you wake up feeling blue. Some times you don't know what to do.
You know it's all up to you. You feel like calling, who you calling to?

Woke up this morning all confused. Went to the kitchen and I wasn't amused.
Got the feeling like I was a bit bused, now I have the feeling like I'm being used.

Doctor, help me feel better. Doctor, what did you find.
Doctor, help me feel better. Doctor tells me it's all in my mind.

Dogs Barking

What's wrong with my life? (Dogs barking) What's with my life? (cat's meowing)

What is wrong with me? (dog's barking) What is up with me? (cat's meowing)

Got a good thing going on. Got the real thing going strong.

Got to get it out. Get it out. Got to live it up. Get it out. Get it out.

Never saw the trouble. Dogs barking. Never got in trouble. Cat's meowing.

What is up with you? Dog's barking. What is up with me? Cat's meowing.

Got a headache all night long. Got a migraine coming strong.

Got to get it out. Get it out. Got to live it up. Get it out. Get it out.

I always had the time. Dog's barking. Was playing at the mind. Cat's meowing

What is up with me? Dog's barking. What is up with me? Cat's meowing.

Get it out. Get it out.

Dubba Dubba

Didn't think I was gone so long. Spiders made some homes here.
If I get the story wrong. Starting over take a look at my fear.

Treading water to stay afloat. Hoping they won't sink my boat.
Treading water to stay afloat. Hoping they won't sink my boat.
Paranoia. Paranoia.

Hope I didn't go out of my mind. Spend all day watching Vanilla Sky.
Someone said I need to watch beautiful Mind. Friends like you are hard to find.

Emotion mixed up out of my brain. I fond the balance in the healing rain.
Emotion mixed up out of my brain. I fond the balance in the healing rain.
Paranoia. Paranoia.

Escape Mind Scape

They're coming to get you. In your sleep the prowl.
They will never let you in your darkest hour.
There's no place you can run to. There's no place you can be free.
You fight until, you fight until you're free.

Escape mind scape. Freedom to dream.
Escape mind scape. Someplace in between.
Imaginary lover run and hide from the nightmare in my sleep.

They feed on your thoughts. They feed on your pride.
They feed on your fear and they tell you lies.
Put you in the dark. Pull you all apart.
Try to stop your heart. Don't care how it starts.

Escape mind scape. Freedom to dream.
Escape mind scape. Someplace in between.
Imaginary friend I need you. How can you defend me.

Feel it all around. Feel it going down.
Chasing a dream. Someplace in between.
Fantasy and madness. Running from my sadness.
Escape mind scape.

Escape mind scape. Freedom to dream.
Escape mind scape. Someplace in between.
Imaginary friend I need you. How can you defend me.

Get Out Of The Way

Had a hard night so I'm going to bed. Crazy dreams running in my head.
I don't know got me down. Gonna find out who's around.

Spinning disco lights in my mirror. Couldn't make it any clearer.
Get out of the way. Get out of the way. Get out of the way if you're not here to help.

Playing in traffic, got to slow down. Pull to the side and look around.
Had a dream about it last night. Hope those people are alright.

Spinning disco lights in my mirror. Couldn't make it any clearer.
Get out of the way. Get out of the way. Get out of the way if you're not here to help.

Blazing fire on the second story. Felt the heat started to worry.
Don't know what I should do. A fire truck is coming through.

Spinning disco lights in my mirror. Couldn't make it any clearer.
Get out of the way. Get out of the way. Get out of the way if you're not here to help.

Money

I go better things to do. I got some money to make.
If I'm sitting still, ain't gonna make money that way.

Money is just a game we play. And we all have to learn the hard way.

Have t drive, can't settle down. Don't even know the name of this town.
If I get there and I'm right on time. Push it to the limit every time.

Money is just a game we play. And we all have to learn the hard way.
Money money money

You can live on love. I've got it good at home.
I know the reason why when I get her on the phone.

Money is just a game we play. And we all have to learn the hard way.
Money money money money

My Way Or The Hi Way

Cruising down the interstate. Hoping I'm not gonna be late.
Gatta be right on time. Passing by the scene of the crime.
Passing cars and shifting gears. Saw my sign, I'm almost there.
Patrol car is on my rear. I know I'm almost there.

My way or the Hi way. My way or the Hi way.
My way or the Hi way. My way or the Hi way.

Looking like a lover should I let you in. Crazy girl it's time to let the fun begin.
Cruising for love do you want a ride. I'll take you to the other side.
I just wanna let you know I know where we can go.
Patrol car is on my rear. I know I'm almost there.

My way or the Hi way. My way or the Hi way.
My way or the Hi way. My way or the Hi way.

I'm feeling hot gonna hit the break. Don't know how much I can take.
You know how to make my motor run. I hit the clutch and I'm having fun.
Passing cars and shifting gears. I saw my sign I'm almost there.
Patrol car is on my rear. I know I'm almost there.

My way or the Hi way. My way or the Hi way.
My way or the Hi way. My way or the Hi way.

One Way

Felling this way drives me crazy. Makes my mind confused and hazy.
Don't really know what to do. I want you to tell me if I'm bothering you.

Walking down a one way street dancing to the drummers beat.
Walking down a one way street dancing to the drummers beat.
You're too hot to be for real. Do you know how you make me feel.
You're too hot to be for real. Do you know how you make me feel.

I think the wind will blow your dress away. You want me to leave but I want to stay.
Looking like that all the time. Looking good ain't a crime.

Walking down a one way street dancing to the drummers beat.
Walking down a one way street dancing to the drummers beat.
You're too hot to be for real. Do you know how you make me feel.
You're too hot to be for real. Do you know how you make me feel.

People talking you're so fine. Everyone knows that you're mine.
Crazy thing spinning in my head. Don't know what I could have said.

Walking down a one way street dancing to the drummers beat.
Walking down a one way street dancing to the drummers beat.
You're too hot to be for real. Do you know how you make me feel.
You're too hot to be for real. Do you know how you make me feel.

Rude Awakening

Living free and on the road never mattered to you before.
Getting paid back what you're owed. You got to even the score.
You live life from day to day making the best of thing.
You don't care what people say and you don't know what tomorrow brings.

It's a rude awakening out on the road. Time to get moving again.
You hate the past and your all alone looking for a friend.

You face the evil in your soul. You chase the demons down.
You erased the devil from your little black book and you're headed out of town.
No one owns you. You make your way. You left it all behind you.
You hate the head games and you went away from the evil following you.

It's a rude awakening out on the road. Time to get moving again.
You hate the past and your all alone looking for a friend.

Living free and on your own nothing ever mattered to you before.
Getting paid back what you're owed. You got to even the score.
You live life from day to day making the best of thing.

Runaway

Dashboard light glowing in my face. Got me going to win the race.
I don't even know who you are but baby you can drive my car.
It really don't matter who you are.

You're a runaway. You're a runaway. Any place is better then where you been.
You're a runaway. You're a runaway. Any place is better then where you been.

I want to talk but you don't say a thing. Shifting gears to make my motor sing.
The way you look how was I to know you don't have any place to go.
And where you come from only heaven knows.

You're a runaway. You're a runaway. Any place is better then where you been.
You're a runaway. You're a runaway. Any place is better then where you been.

Catching a ride on a one way street. Leave the past behind you and in the driver seat.
Ain't got no future and hate the past so why do you have to drive so fast?
You're gonna catch hell and your catching it fast.

You're a runaway. You're a runaway. Any place is better then where you been.
You're a runaway. You're a runaway. Any place is better then where you been.

You're a runaway. You're a runaway. Any place is better then where you been.
You're a runaway. You're a runaway. Any place is better then where you been.

Vacation

So I'm sitting here on vacation. Good news is coming it won't be the last.
Need some rest I'm here on vacation. Music's in my head and I'm feeling fine.

What can I do here on vacation. The rain is coming down every day.
Yes I know I'm here on vacation. Just a little time to get away.

Need some rest got to get away. I feel the stress coming every day.
Taking a test no time to play. Maybe I will just stay this way.

Well, that wraps up my collection of songs. I didn't realize until I got them down here how long I lived with my dark side. I'm a lot lighter these days and my anti psychotic pills I started over ten year ago work fine. Thank you.
